

I am sure you are aware of the interference problems this broadband on Power lines can generate. Amateur radio cannot co-exist with this interference. If you want to eliminate Amateur Radio I would say this would be one of the best ways I know of. Please do not approve this broadband transmission method..